

Bibliography in supp. mat.

Appendix 2 to Phylogenetic Transfer Learning

Michael D. Catchen ^{1,2}

¹ McGill University ² Québec Centre for Biodiversity Sciences

Supp. Mat. can use their own bibliography. For example, we can cite this really old paper about what parasitism really is: Fahrenholz (1913).

References

Fahrenholz, H. (1913). Ectoparasiten und abstammungslehre. Zool. Anz., 41, 371–374.